Calabria and Southern Italy

An aerial photograph of a rugged coastline. The top left shows a rocky cliff face with various textures and colors, including grey, brown, and tan. The water below is a vibrant turquoise color, transitioning to a deeper blue as it extends towards the bottom right. The water's surface is slightly rippled, and there are some darker spots visible beneath the surface, possibly rocks or coral. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

Ristorante Giardino d'Inverno

TROPEA
CALABRIA (VV)

In the beautiful setting of the Michelizia Resort in Tropea is born the Winter Garden Restaurant. Wrapped in an atmosphere ready to surprise everyone.

The magical city of Tropea hosts a new location, an enchanting restaurant overlooking the clear waters and the white sands of Tropea. The Ristorante Giardino D'Inverno - Michelizia Resort in Tropea, is part of the Valentour Group, whose name, like the well known Resort it belongs to, takes its inspiration from the Church Michelizia, located in the same historic area.

The location was created with the aim of being the reference point for the organization of a wedding or an important event in Tropea, with a new concept designed to surprise you. An exclusive design, innovative for the furnishings and unique for the beauty of the details. An apparently exotic world, made of colorful lights and bamboo reeds, symbol of long life and friendship.

The Giardino D'Inverno restaurant is a relaxing, elegant and refined place with traditional cuisine revisited in a modern way by chefs prepared and attentive to every need. The ideal location for your events with a breathtaking view. The right environment to be well.
